Look around for files that gh0st404 might have hidden - he's a novice DEADFACE member so we suspect he probably hides files in the simplest way.

Submit the flag as deadface{flag_text}.

1. I utilized the linux command 'ls -a' where 'ls' shows all files currently in the directory, and the '-a' flag indicates hidden files as well as normally available files.

2. This revealed multiple new files not previously shown, including the '.ash_history' file and the '.dont_forget' file.
3. After opening the '.dont_forget', the flag was visible at the bottom.
